BOULANGER CHIEF.

His Immense Majority in the Seine Department.

FRENCH MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

The General's Victory Causes Great Uneasiness—Rentes Decline—Government is Astounded.

PARIS, January 27.—The polls closed at 6 p.m. The attendance of voters was unprecedentedly large. The impression prevails that the few police seen on the streets are nearly all being held in reserve. The Cabinet is summoned to meet at the ministry of the interior to-morrow at 1.20 p.m. The result in 700 divisions is Boulanger 120,000, Jaques 77,000. The excitement is intensifying.

GREAT DISORDER.

Every quarter of Paris was enlivened last evening by frequent street brawls by supporters and opponents of Boulanger. A most violent encounter took place in Montmartre, where a number of persons were wounded. The police interfered and arrested several of the ring leaders. Another serious collision in the Fauberg Temple occurred.

In the meeting were scenes of great disorder. Bands of men and lads singing the Marseillaise and Boulangerists paraded the boulevards until a late hour. In the Place de la Republique and Place de la Opera open demonstrations were held. Great masses of people were present, but the proceedings were, on the whole, fairly orderly. The day opened fine. Shortly after the streets began to fill with people. At noon the elections began, and men were swarming at 228 voting places. The electors were everywhere first at the voting places and displayed the GREATEST ENTHUSIASM.

A large number of householders were summoned to aid the police to maintain order. The police were held in readiness at various points, and cavalry then dispersed all gatherings. Municipal guards lined the boulevards, and in every quarter the police and military were prepared to suppress an outbreak.

BOULANGER ELEVATED.

Complete returns show the following results: Boulanger, 244,070; Jaques, 162,520; Boule, 16,760; other candidates, 10,033. Boulanger's plurality, 81,150; Boulanger's majority, 54,432.

Members of the government are astounded at the result. Bets are freely offered that the MINISTRY WILL RESIGN.

to-morrow.

The Boulangerists predict the immediate fall of Floquet's ministry, the dissolution of Parliament, and general elections. Many express the belief that forty radical deputies will join the Boulangerist ranks, and thus give a following of sixty members in the chamber.

HE WON'T TAKE IT.

Boulanger will resign the Seine seat, retaining that for the Nord Department. It is rumored that Marguin, governor of the Bank of France, will be asked to form a new cabinet.

THE MINISTRY TO RESIGN.

The Cabinet sat from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. Premier Floquet informed the President that the Carnot Cabinet was prepared to resign if the President considered such a step advisable. Several ministers advocated the reconstruction of the Cabinet on a wider basis. They proposed to have in the new ministry influential men from all Republican sections. President Carnot will await the result of to-day's sitting of the Chamber before coming to a conclusion.

BOULANGER'S ORGANIZATION.

to-day was marvelously perfect; Jaques' was greatly inferior. Louise Michel worked hard in behalf of the general, and was largely instrumental in securing his victory. De Lesseps claims the credit for the general's immense majority as the result of telling his clients how to vote when publicly dining Boulanger.

AFTER THE ELECTION.

On the Petite Bourse, after the election, rentes declined 5 cents for money and 25 cents for account. Great excitement prevails on the boulevards. During the night the police did not interfere with the 20,000 persons assembled outside the Cafe Durand, cheering and singing.

When Boulanger was leaving in his carriage, after the announcement, he passed a restaurant next to Durand's, where the friends of Jaques were gathered, who hissed loudly, and Boulanger's friends replied by throwing stones.

THE MINISTRY RESIGN.

PARIS, January 28.—In consequence of the victory of Boulanger the ministry tendered their resignations this morning, but the President declined to accept them.

Republican journals, while admitting that the election of Boulanger is a serious reverse, declare it is not sufficient to discourage the party, which must unite closely against threatened Caesarism.

THE MONARCHIST PRESS.

Monarchist papers assert that the result of the election is a condemnation of the parliamentary republic, and pre-figures its downfall.

Boulangerists organs emphatically declare that the election is a blow to the government.

Figaro says that at to-day's session of the chamber, Jouvencel, Radical, will question the government as to what measures it will adopt to check the spread of Boulangerism. Floquet will reply to Jouvencel's interpellation at length.

Several requests were made, but no serious outbreak occurred.

VOTED FOR ELSEWHERE.

An election was held yesterday to fill the vacancy in the chamber for the department of Cote d'Or. Baray, Republican candidate, received 25,645 votes, and Frost, Radical, 22,781; 11,797 were cast for Boulanger.

THE CABINET UNSETTLED.

The cabinet held a meeting this morning and discussed the measures to be adopted in the event of disorders arising. It is stated the majority of the ministers are in favor of dissolving the chambers and holding a general election in April, but first modifying the electoral laws in order to prevent plebiscitary proceedings. Some members of the chamber advocate strong anti-Boulangerist measures by the government. They urge that M. Campenon be asked to form a cabinet.

PRESIDENT CARNOT.

held a conference this morning with many men prominent in political life. It is the President's intention to await events and to accept all the responsibility the situation involves. He will not abandon the presidency until the expiration of his term of office.

Floquet has decided to resign or to take any other action that the chamber may consider the interests of the republic demand.

THE BOURSE.

4 p.m.—Three per cent. rentes were quoted this afternoon at 82 francs 95 centimes, a decline of but 5 centimes from Saturday's quotation. The price to-day at close of the Bourse was 83 francs 75 centimes.

HE GIVES IT UP.

Jouvencel has abandoned his intention to interpellate the government in the chamber of deputies this afternoon in regard to the measure to be adopted to check the spread of Boulangerism. Up to 3:30 p.m., but few persons had gathered outside of the chamber and nothing noteworthy occurred.

In government circles it is considered that the election of Boulanger

MENACES THE REPUBLIC.

90,000 conservatives and 150,000 republicans having voted for him. One minister, speaking of the situation, quoted the words of Metiers: "We should take everything seriously, nothing tragically."

IN THE DEPUTIES.

Various questions which were proposed to ask government in Chamber of Deputies to-day, concerning the political situation, have been postponed until Thursday. General Boulanger did not appear in the Chamber. The crowd outside the Chamber increased as the afternoon wore on, and became somewhat excited. A large number of policemen are in readiness to suppress disorders. Floquet, the prime minister, was present in the Chamber. His appearance was careworn.

Sentence Confirmed.

New York, January 28.—The general term of the Supreme Court has handed down a decision affirming the verdict of the Circuit Court of $45,000 against the millionaire coffee merchant, Charles Arbuckle in a breach of promise suit brought by pretty Clara Campbell, of Ironton, O.
